

✦ Thought Experiments of The Signal

❖ The House Inside

If your soul was a house, what is kept in the locked room?
Who locked it?

❖ On Value

Imagine the world was built around silence instead of sound.
What becomes valuable?

❖ Disappearing

If no one knew your name, your history, or your face – would you still be you?
What part of you cannot be taken?

❖ The Loop

What if you're not becoming, but remembering?
What if you already passed through once – and chose to return?

❖ Weight

What is heavier: a memory, a promise, or a secret?

❖ The Mirror

If a version of you lived in the mirror, but reversed in every way – what truth would they see that you don't?

❖ The Fabric

If your thoughts were visible threads woven into the world – what would your path look like?

❖ Deathless

If you knew this wasn't your only life, but one of many – what would you do differently now?
